

I feel very strongly against legislation allowing further consolidation of ownership of the airwaves. The possibility of ever fewer companies and individuals controlling more of what we see and hear is alarming and against the best interests of a democratic society. No no no...!